REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. Claims 1-8, 12-18, 21, and 24 are allowed over the prior art of record.

- 2. Claims 9-11, 19, 20, 22, and 23 have been canceled.
- 3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The Applicants arguments filed on 6/13/2007 are persuasive. Claims 21 and 22 have been canceled by Examiners Amendment. The feature of independent claim 1 directed towards allowable subject matter is wherein the movement sensor is configured to generate the compressed data based on a logarithm-based compression algorithm and wherein the movement sensor is configured to identify a difference between the movement data and the compressed data for a current reporting period and to adjust the movement data for a subsequent reporting period based on the identified difference. The feature of independent claim 21 directed towards allowable subject matter is wherein the compressed data includes a total number of bits that varies based on a magnitude of the relative movement. The feature of independent claim 24 directed towards allowable subject matter is wherein the apparatus is configured to wirelessly transmit button press information using a lesser number of bits than there are buttons on the apparatus that are represented by the button press information. Albulet et al. generally teaches of an RF data compression for a high speed mouse having a packet data stream in which 7 bits are allocated for motion information, however, fails to teach of the limitations as outlined above. Therefore the above said features in combination with the other limitations of the above independent claims 1, 21, and 24, are found to be allowable over the prior art of record, and therefore claims 1-8, 12-18, 21, and 24 are allowable.
